He's Eating Up
YOUR Money

Did you know the U. S. Government has shown that the ground squirrels on your place are collecting 34c from you every year for each acre of your cultivated land, in what they eat and destroy?

Furthermore, did you know that these little destroyers depreciate land values an average of $2.74 per acre? Can you afford to pay the toll? Stop it. Get rid of these pests that eat your crops, destroy your trees and vines, and spoil your land. It's easy and inexpensive to get rid of them with Kilmol.

Kilmol is a liquid chemical that both asphyxiates and poisons squirrels, gophers, etc.—Kilmol "will kill 'em all."

Waste balls are saturated with Kilmol. One is placed in each burrow, then ignited. The gas quickly penetrates to every part of the tunnel.

It "gets" Mr. Squirrel or Mr. Gopher before he can escape. One application, costing less than one cent per burrow for Kilmol, invariably does the business—it's 100 per cent efficient. Results absolutely guaranteed or money refunded. Kilmol can also be used with U. S. Destructor — a machine invented by U. S. officials that forces Kilmol gas into burrows — Kilmol is used by Government, State and County officers.

KILMOL
SQUIRLGOPHENE
Will Kill 'Em All

Ask your local dealer for Kilmol and waste balls. The waste balls you get from him are better and cheaper than home-made. If he can't supply you communicate with me, giving his name. Also ask him about improved United States Government formula of poisoned barley.

Write for full information about squirrel and gopher destruction.

San Francisco Bay in 1840

Today, the beautiful harbor at San Francisco, fresh in the memory of the thousands who visited it in 1915, is in interesting contrast with the account of it written three quarters of a century ago by Richard Henry Dana, in "Two Years Before the Mast."

"This large bay, which lies in latitude 37 degrees 58 minutes, was discovered by Sir Francis Drake, and by him represented to be (as indeed it is) a magnificent bay, containing several good harbors, great depth of water, and surrounded by a fertile and finely wooded country. About thirty miles from the mouth of the bay, and on the southeast side, is a high point, upon which the presidio, is built. Behind this is the harbor in which trading vessels anchor, and near it, the mission of San Francisco, and a newly begun settlement, mostly of Yankee Californians, called Yerba Buena, which promises well. Here, at anchor, and the only vessel, was a brig under Russian colors, from Asitka, in Russian America, which had come down to winter, and to take in a supply of tallow and grain, great quantities of which latter articles are raised in the missions at the head of the bay.

"We begin our preparations for taking in a supply of wood and water, for both of which San Francisco is the best place on the coast. A small island, situated about two leagues from the anchorage, called by us 'Wood Island,' and by the Spaniards 'Isla de los Angeles,' was covered with trees to the water's edge; and to this, two of our crew, who were Kennebec men and could handle an ax like a plaything, were sent every morning to cut wood, with two boys to pile it up for them. In about a week, they had cut enough to last us a year.

"We sailed down this magnificent bay with a light wind, the tide, which was running out, carrying us at the rate of four or five knots. It was a fine day; the first of entire sunshine we had had for more than a month. We passer directly under the high cliff on which the presidio is built, and stood into the middle of the bay, from whence we could see small bays, making up into the interior, on every side; large and beautifully wooded islands; and the mouths of several small rivers. If California ever becomes a prosperous country this bay will be the center of its prosperity. The abundance of wood and water, the extreme fertility of its shores, the excellence of its climate, which is as near to being perfect as any in the world, and its facilities for navigation, affording the best anchoring grounds in the whole western coast of America, all fit it for a place of great importance; and indeed, it has attracted much attention, for the settlement of 'Yerba Buena,' where we lay at anchor, made chiefly by Americans and English, and which bids fair to become the most important trading place on the coast, at this time began to supply traders, Russian ships and whalers with their stores of wheat and frijoles.

"The tide leaving us, we came to anchor near the mouth of the bay, under a high and beautifully sloping hill, upon which herds of hundreds and hundreds of red deer, and the stag, with his high branching antlers, were bounding about, looking off, affrighted at the nioses which we made for the purpose of seeing the variety of their beautiful attitudes and motions."

DRIVER OF AUTO BLINDED BY LIGHTS HITS TWO MEN

Henry Yount of Belmont, and a Portuguese employed at the San Carlos dairy, were walking along the state highway near San Carlos Sunday night when then were run into from the back by an automobile driven by William Jamieson of this city. Jamieson was driving slowly at the time and did not see the two men on the road on account of being blinded by undimmed lights on another car coming toward him.

Yount was rendered unconscious. Both men were picked up and taken in Jamieson's car to Mrs. Huling's sanitarium, where they were treated by Dr. J. P. H. Dykes for severe lacerations of the scalp and numerous contusions about the body. Yount also had his ankle badly fractured.

New Auto Laws

A bunch of new laws affecting automobiles went into effect with the new year. The most important provision which concerns the general public is the dimming provision, which is, in effect that the front lights must be permanently dimmed so as to prevent any glare, and the center rays shall strike the ground at not more than 75 feet in front of the auto. Unusual noise and cut outs shall be avoided, and number plates are to be kept legible and free from dirt and grease. Speed limit: 30 miles per hour anywhere; 20 miles in closely settled territory; 15 miles in business districts; and not exceed 10 miles at any approaching or intersections. Vehicles passing from the rear to give an audible signal and not to turn in too soon.

DEATH TAKES INFANT SON OF MR. AND MRS. E. S. McAULIFFE

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. McAuliffe are receiving the sympathy of their many friends of this city in the loss of their infant son, who passed away in Alameda Sunday morning. Death was caused by pneumonia, following an attack of whooping cough. The child was born in this city and was one month and three days old.

The funeral took place Tuesday, the interment being in Holy Cross cemetery, Colma.

Miss Carolyn Read of this city is visiting her sister, Mrs. Philip Holden, in Napa.

WOODSIDE WOMAN TO BUILD CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Mrs Elise A. Drexler of Woodside, widow of the late Louis P. Drexler, millionaire realty owner, has established a fund of $1,000,000, the income of which is to be used to maintain a hospital and school for convalescent children. Articles of incorporation, for the institution, which is to be located on a forty-acre site about one mile back of Stanford University, were filed yesterday. More than $100,000 will be expended for building construction, according to Dr. Louis P. Howe, nephew and associate of Mrs. Drexler in the enterprise.

"Contracts for two temporary buildings have been let and the school-hospital will open July 1st, ready to care for fifteen crippled children," Dr. Howe said yesterday.

"We have fixed the maximum number of students at sixty, and for the most part they will be girls," said Dr. Howe.

"In the construction of the buildings we will follow the open-air plan as much as possible. Admission to the school will be left to the board of trustees. In addition to providing medical treatment, we will equip children for earning their living. No tubercular patients will be admitted."

The directors of the enterprise are: Mrs. Elise A. Drexler, Dr. Louis P. Howe, Dr. Herbert C. Moffitt, L. M. Welch and Judge Marcel Cerf.

MERCHANTS' CREDIT SYSTEM PROVING VERY SATISFACTORY

At a well attended meeting of the Retail Trade committee of the Chamber of Commerce held Friday night, the recently installed credit system was discussed from every angle and its value was enhanced by the addition of several dozen names to the list created a few weeks ago. Many of the merchants present reported that many persons who have been previously listed have settled their accounts and they ask that the names of these persons be stricken from the list and placed on a good credit basis.

Discussion of the accounts led to a pledge from the members of the committee that they would go over their books "with a fine comb" and file complete reports. It is estimated that with this task completed the credit bureau will have on file ratings covering some several hundred names.

KNOCKER OR BOOSTER?

When the Creator had made all good things, there was still some dirty work to do, so He made the beasts and reptiles and poisonous insects, and when He had finished He had some scraps that were too bad to put into the rattlesnake, the hyena, the scorpion, and the skunk; so He put all these together, covered it with suspicion, wrapped it with jealousy, marked it with a yellow streak, and called it a Knocker.

This product was so fearful to contemplate that He had to make something to counteract it, so He took a sunbeam, put it in the heart of a child, and the brain of a man, wrapped it with civic pride, covered it with brotherly love, gave it a mask of velvet and a grasp of steel, made it a lover of fields and flowers and manly sports, a believer in equality and justice, a worker for and supporter of every good thing, and called it a Booster; and ever since, mortal man has had the privilege of choosing his associates

MUNICIPAL CAR LINE MAY BE EXTENDED TO THIRD STREET

M. B. Johnson, Frank L. Eksward, H. C. Tuchsen, S. Masterson and William Waters, represented this county at a meeting of the Public Utilities Committee of the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco yesterday to take up the matter of extension of the Stockton street municipal car line across Market street, down Fourth, to the Southern Pacific station at Third street. It is understood the San Francisco supervisors favored the extension.

P. S. Davis of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and family, who have been occupying one of the Benson cottages on Brewster street, have rented the Robert Chatham house on Arguello street. They moved into their new home Tuesday.

GOVERNMENT EXTRAVAGANT

Senator Lane of Oregon has given out an interview severely upbraiding the government for extravagance. He says that from 30 to 40 cents of every dollar spent goes to waste, and asserts that if business efficiency and economy were applied to the government's affairs it would be no trick at all to save three hundred million to four hundred million dollars a year out of the money now being expended. If some one could compel the government to practice economy, he thinks, there would be no need for emergency or other special taxes.

No one will quarrel with him as to the truth of his statements and there is no room for a division of opinion on the subject. Everyone knows the government is run on a fiscal plan that would bankrupt a private enterprise before it even had time to get started. Economy is a word that is known only in political debate and efficiency has never yet been made a science in our government.

The men who make up the government of the United States confine their views on economy to criticism of the opposition party and to statements given out for consumption by the voters at home.

There is a moral in the above that ought to convince anyone of the folly of expecting too much relief from government ownership propositions.

DOCTORS AMPUTATE LEG TO SAVE AGED MAN'S LIFE

Toussant Allain who was injured in a runaway last October, had his right leg amputated at the thigh Sunday afternoon, at the Huling sanitarium. The operation was performed by Dr. W. C. Chidester of San Mateo, assisted by Drs. Dykes and Ross. Allain, who is 75 years of age, stood the operation splendidly and his condition yesterday was reported most satisfactory. His thigh was badly crushed in the accident and the physicians decided to operate in order to save his life.

How to Catch a Hen

The problem of how to catch a hen has at last been solved by the University of California. Prof. J. E. Dougherty has published plans and specifications for a "catching hook." He declares that where used with normal care not to close the hook too tightly nor to jerk the fowl too suddenly, such a catching hook is almost indispensable in a poultry yard, and particularly valuable for removing promptly from a pen any sick fowl, which might soon spread disease through the flock.

DELIGHTFUL DINNER PARTY ENJOYED BY DOZEN GUESTS

Dr. and Mrs. N. C. Cummings entertained at a delightful dinner party Saturday evening at their home on Washington street. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Towne, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ensor, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wright of San Jose, Mrs. Lila Kirkpatrick, Mrs. S. T. Ferguson.

NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM FOR HIGH SCHOOL INSTALLED

Electrician M. E. Ryan installed eight new type C, nitrogen filled lamps in the highschool last week, three in the assembly room, three in the hall, one in Principal McCrea's room and one in the reception room. The new lights are a decided improvement over the old ones, more efficient and considerably less expensive.

Dr. and Mrs. N. C. Cummings motored to San Jose Monday night to attend a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wright.

F. Leist, the tailor, has moved his shop from Stafford's block to the building next door to the Times-Gazette office.

Hiram Haskins, who lives alone in a small cabin on Winslow street, near the Southern Pacific depot, was painfully burned about the face and chest last Sunday, when he fell on top of a hot stove. He is being attended by Dr. J. E. Chapin.

The Swastika Club of this city have their invitations out for their first social which is to be held in Forester's hall Saturday evening, February 12th.

THE LAST MEXICAN OUTRAGE

The killing of a trainload of Americans in Mexico by the beaten faction of Villa's bandits was on land very much like the sinking of the Lousitania at sea. The men should never have been sent there without a sufficient guard to protect them. The United States government in concert with Brazil, Argentine and Chile recognized Carranza and withdrew all help and recognition from Villa, who had won all Carranza's victories. That left Villa in the same situation that the Southern Confederacy was in after Appomattox. The Southern soldiers went to their homes and began again to bulid up their broken fortunes. Villa's soldiers broke up into guerilla bands and commenced to loot friend and foe alike. Their atrocities culminated in this last murder of nineteen Americans. It was a natural conclusion and is not a surprise to anyone who knows anything about Mexican character. There is just now a sudden great outcry against President Wilson, as it is just, this far. President Wilson from the first has not only known nothing of Mexican character but he has refused to learn anything. He took up a theory that the way to subdue a Bengal tiger was to feed him soothing syrup. When Huerta caused the assassination of the president of Mexico, except for the president's stubborness and his refusal to believe the truth about the Mexican nature he would have set the army and navy in motion proclaiming to the world and to Mexico that it did not want one foot of Mexican soil, but that it was determined that there should be order in Mexico and the safety of Americans and all other foreigners there should be assured. It would have been fixed there two years ago and before this time the natural industries of Mexico would have been resumed, our army and navy removed; there would have been no longer any fear of murder and the heart-burnings would long ago have ceased.

PROPOSED CHANGE IN METHOD OF ADJUSTING RAILWAY MAIL

The law now governing railway mail pay provides for pay on the basis of the average daily weights of mails carried over authorized routes and dates back to 1873. On each route the mails are weighed for a period of 105 successive days and the rates are arranged on a sliding scale whereby as the weights increase the rates decrease. The average annual cost to the department for weighing the mails is $250,000. The weighing is costly and annoying and interferes seriously with the operation of the service. Compensation thus determined is not fairly distributed according to service rendered. The system lacks elasticity to meet changing conditions and fluctuations of traffic that with the growth of the parcel poset has been frequent and far reaching.

The disirability of a revision of the laws governing railway pay has been recognized by postal administrations for many years. A department bill is at present before the conference committee. This committee advocates the space basis for all service. The plan provides for a scale of pay exceedingly liberal in the light of every factor that justly enters into the question of fixing reasonable compensation for carrying the mails and assures the railroads a somewhat larger revenue per car per mile for carrying the mails than they are now receiving.

There is no justification for the claim that the mail service should participate fully in the enormous cost of elaborate terminals and station structures. The mails neither seek nor need housing in $100,000,000 buildings, in fact the least expensive parts of stations are devoted to the mails and very rightly so. Although this would warrant a reduction of railway mail compensation the post office department has not advocated this action.

In a little more than two years the parcel post has grown so rapidly that its annual traffic is now estimated at 1,000,000,000 parcels a year.

The railroads are receiving from the government amounts which for hauls of any considerable length, exceed by two and one-half times the amount they receive from the express companies for like service. It is the belief of the department and many railroad officials as well, that the space plan would enable all service furnished according to the needs to be properly compensated; in other words the department would pay for what it receives and the railroads would receive pay for all service furnished. The space basis eliminates expensive weighing, pays for service actually rendered and space furnished and will enable the department to proceed with its plan for the expansion of the parcel post.

NEW POLITICAL AND BUSINESS DEAL FOR THIS COUNTY

For over fifty years, or since San Mateo county was instituted as a political subdivision of the State of California, its county officers, representatives to the California Legislature and at Congress in Washington, D. C., have been up to the last county and state campaign elected to office strictly on a partisan basis, either republican or democratic. At various times independent candidates have been successful. It can be noted that, after all, the result proved that the man always came before the party in the minds of the voters. It has been decided in this county during the past month that all voters, men or women, can register as they desire, partisan, non-partisan or decline to state. This is right. The powers that be have seen the light. It follows the world-wide idea that you can force the man or animal to come to the font to quench thirst, but you cannot compel them to drink. Especially in human nature since the world existed it is the same today as it ever was. For the first time in the history of this county its press has organized for mutual protection—not against any one man or party or combination of men or parties, but for its self-preservation. Prior to this year the editors and proprietors of the newspapers of this county have as individuals endeavored to improve conditions of business with the county officials, but have failed. Now they have come together under the principle that what is the concern of one is the concern of all. The newspaper men have organized into what is called the San Mateo County Press Association. It has been organized but a few months and is progressing rapidly. It has been the practice of some of the officials of this county to send their orders for printing and necessary books to firms who do business outside the county. An endeavor is now being made to have that system changed by placing their orders with just as good printing establishments within the county at no additional cost.

Since organization two of the present county officials have voluntarily assured the association of their loyalty to the home-trade idea by stating that all orders for printing or books necessary for the proper conduct of their offices will hereafter be placed with some printing establishment in this county. It is expected that soon the same assurance will be given by all the county officials, although some are hesitating.

The association members feel that they have all been loyal to the interests and upbuilding of this now famous county and given many columns of free publicity in their papers. Now they believe the time has come for a fair deal and expect all the officials of the country to join with them in the building up and advancement of this important suburban and commercial county.—South San Francisco Enterprise.

SITE DATES FROM 1776

The first settlement on the present site of San Francisco dates from 1776. It consisted of a Spanish military post (presidio) and the Franciscan mission of San Francisco de Asis. In 1836 the settlement of Yerba Buena was established in a little cove southeast of Telegraph Hill. The name San Francisco was, however, applied to all three settlements. The United States flag was raised over the town in 1846, and the population rapidly increased, reaching perhaps 900 in May, 1848. The news of the gold discoveries was followed by crowds of fortune seekers, so that by the end of 1848 the city had an estimated population of 20,000. From that time on San Francisco has grown rapidly. The first regular overland mail communication with the East was established by pony express in 1860, the charge for postage being $5 for half an ounce. In 1869 the completion of the Central Pacific Railroad to Oakland marked the beginning of transcontinental railway communication.—U. S. Geological Survey.

McPHERSON WILL NOT OPPOSE NASH FOR STATE SENATE

The Santa Cruz Evening News is authority for a statement in an item recently published and subsequently copied by the Santa Cruz Sentinel, that Harold E. McPherson, the present assemblyman from that county, will not be a candidate for state senator, but will run for the assembly to succeed himself. The Sentinel is published by Duncan McPherson and his son is the present assemblyman and the publication by them in their paper must be taken as an indication that young McPherson is for the present content to represent his county in the lower house of the state legislature.

As McPherson is a close friend of Jos. H. Nash, the present county clerk of this county, it is safe to predict that Joe will have a clear field for state senator in this district which includes San Mateo, Santa Cruz and San Benito Counties.

San Mateo County is entitled to the senatorship at this time, and no stronger man can be found in the whole district than Joe Nash. His nomination is now assured and his election is a foregone conclusion.

It has been stated that Joseph Gordon of San Mateo will make the run in this county for assemblyman to succeed Henry Ward Brown.

HISTORIC OVERLAND ROUTE SHOWS STATE IN TRUE LIGHT

For the past century or longer Europe has been looked upon by a large part of the Eastern tourists as the only place to spend the winter, but are now prevented from going there by war.

Now is the time to show that America can offer every thing to be found abroad and to convince them that we have all they can desire in this country. The Union Pacific has given us a new publication, "California Calls You" not simply telling about California bue showing by the best that can be obtained from photographs, a few most beautiful spots that can not be excelled in Europe or America and that it is only necessary to visit California to obtain the best in climate, scenery and comfort and without the effort of making a sea voyage. The work of this booklet, even to its minutest detail is something for the publishers to be proud of.

Petitions for Guardianship

Mrs. Anna D. Howard has petitioned the superior court to have her daughter, Frances S. Howard, aged 33 years, declared incompetent and that she be appointed guardian of her person. The petition alleges that Miss Howard for the past six months has been mentally incompetent and totally incapable of taking care of herself or of managing her property. Mrs. Howard joins with the Mercantile Trust Company of San Francisco in another petition asking that that concern be appointed the guardian of the estate of her daughter, alleging the same facts that appear in her own petition. Attorney Garret McEnerney is the attorney of record for both petitions. Mrs. Howard brought a similar action six months ago and after a long and tedious trial Judge Buck decided that Miss Howard was competent. Mrs. Howard's attorney at that time was Samuel Knight. Howard was appointed guardian of her daughter's person, and the Mercantile Trust Company guardian of her estate. The only witnesses were Mrs. Howard, David Stollery and Mr. Symmes of the Mercantile Trust Company. Miss Howard did not appear, but was represented by Attorney Ed. Bell, brother of Theodore Bell. Attorney Young representing Attorney Garret McEnerney office appeared for Mrs. Howard.

SAFETY FIRST OR SORROW FATE

Do we realize the meaning of President Wilson's present addresses to our people of the middle states? He is telling us that tomorrow may see us severing friendly relations with one or more of the warring nations and we must have the material with which to defend ourselves adequately or bow our heads in shame, our men bullied and our women and children wronged. Not that the President or any of us want to have our United States take such a step, but that we may be forced to it. Some of the warring nations are probably on their last legs. They are in the position of having to play their last trumps, even at the risk of trampling the rights of our citizens. Now we are at peace, tomorrow we may be fighting. Now we may attend the Young Bachelors' all night grand ball to be held in the Foresters' Hall Saturday night, February 19, 1916. Tomorrow the flower of our country, the best of our yonng men, may be called upon, and then it will be too late to dance and make merry.

Old Clothes Party

The rain and threatening weather will not prevent the fun loving people of Redwood City from attending the old clothes party in Foresters' Hall this evening. It will be a gay throng of young and old making merry, wearing their old clothes. The hall is to be crowded and ancient, indeed, will be some of the garments long since out of style. Clothes worn during the reign of Queen Elizabeth will be in evidence. Anyone missing the scene is certain to miss a rare and mirth provoking sight.

Lien on Race Track

John A. Zara has brought an action in the Superior Court against the New California Jockey Club to foreclose a mechanic's lien on the property of the defendant near San Bruno. The complaint alleges that Zara on August 8, 1915 entered into an agreement to cut the grass, grade, water and oil the race track and repair the fences surrounding the property. He completed the work in a satisfactory manner but was only paid a small sum of the contract price. There still remains to be paid the sum of $228.75. Zara asks for that amount together with interest and costs of suit and for the further sum of $12.10, money advanced in securing and filing lien. Ross and Ross are the attorneys for plaintiff.

Interlocutory Decrees Granted

Judge Buck has granted an interlocutory decree of divorce to Nellie Moller from her husband Edward H. Moller on the ground of extreme cruelty. The couple was married at San Jose on June 25, 1904. There are two children as an issue of the marriage, Edna H. Moller, aged 8 years and Dorothy M. Moller, aged 6 years. The custody of the minor children was awarded to the mother.

The Bolens were married at San Francisco on April 3, 1905. There are no children as a result of the union. The community property was settled out of court. The plaintiff was permitted to resume her maiden name, Bertha Theresa Adelman.

The petition was for the purpose of quieting title to certain real property located at Palo Robles. Both petitions will be heard by Judge Buck on February 14th.

Joseph J. Bullock is attorney for the petitioner, who is a friend of the family.

GRAND JURY FILES REPORT AND IS DISCHARGED

Members Commended by the Court For Economy and Dispatch

Late yesterday afternoon the grand jury that was organized last November made its report and was discharged by Judge Buck. The court stated to the jurors that it was the most economical in the transaction of its business in the history of the county, gave less trouble to the court and finished its business in a commendable manner. He thanked the members for their consideration and care in handling the different matters that came before them. The report proper of the grand jury was very brief only containing two pages of fool's cap. The jury recommended that temporary repairs be made at the County Jail and that work on the new structure begin as soon as possible. It was recommended that a septic tank be put in at the poor farm. The report criticizes the action of some members of the board of supervisors in doing work in excess of their apportionment of money. The expert's report is a voluminous document containing several hundred typewritten pages. All the county officers are given a clean bill of health.

Latest Projector For Local School

The trustees of the grammar school have purchased a balopticon of the very latest type, this model having been on the market for only ninety days. The machine will throw on an aluminum screen a ten foot reproduction of any post card, photograph or other picture. By simply moving a lever, lantern slides can be used at once. Chase Littlejohn will utilize this balopticon in the near future to illustrate several talks that he has in preparation on the birds of San Mateo County. This machine will be available for use in the auditoriums of the new school houses as well as in the central school.

COAST SIDE ITEMS

The children, to all of whom snow was a very uncommon sight, were perfectly wild with delight over the wet, mushy sleet with which the ground was covered Friday morning. Snowballing was indulged in with a fervent vim. Grownups took part in hilarity. The stuff could be found in shary spots well past the noon hour, and every youngster gave a deep sigh of regret when the last treasured white particle had turned to water.

Little Lydie Silva, aged 8 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Silva, the patient little sufferer, is free from pain. Death was due to a complication of diseases, among them a serious affection of the spine. The parents left nothing undone to obtain relief, but without avail. On last Monday death released her. The child had been taken to Lane's Hospital in San Francisco. As no change in the patient's condition was anticipated, Mrs. Silva, who was with the little one, decided to come home to attend the funeral of Manuel Furtado, her brother. While the mother was thus away the child suddenly died—died calling for her mother.

The artichoke and Brussel sprouts crops of the coastside of San Mateo county are almost a complete failure this year on account of the past month's heavy rains and the frost of the first of the month. The eatable parts of the artichokes and sprouts are decaying on account of the extreme moisture, and the roots of the vines are rottening. From one of the growers we learn that a number of the produce men will be hit pretty hard on account of the shortage of the crop. This is not all the growers on the coast have to contend with, as practically all the seed, such as grain, beans and peas have been uncovered by the heavy downpour they have been subject to.

Mrs. Margaret Finnegan, the registrar for this district, has received her blanks from County Clerk Nash of Redwood City and is prepared to register voters. Those wishing to vote at the school trustee election in April must register on or before March 7th.

Mrs. Elsie A. Drexler, widow of the late Louis P. Drexler, the millionaire realty owner who in early days accumulated a vast fortune in the wholesale liquor business in San Francisco, has established a fund of $1,000,000, the income from which is to be used to maintain a hospital and school for cripple children. Mrs. Drexler has purchased 38 acres of land near the old Burke place not far froom the Coon bridge. The property lies partly in Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties and is an ideal spot for such an institution. More than $100,000 will be expended in buildings. During the week Mrs. Drexler awarded a contract to Stockholm and Allyn for the construction of temporary quarters for nurses and a housekeeping building for girls. The amount of the contract is nearly $17,000. Work on the new structure has already begun. Many local carpenters are employed there. All the business of the concern is to be transacted in Menlo Park. This means a boom for this locality. In time it is to be one of the largest institutions of its kind on the Pacific Coast.

They have selected the best music to be procured for the dance and they will act as charming hostesses to their guests of the evening dispensing free of all extra charge, delicious refreshment. The Hall of the Nativity, Menlo Park has been placed at their disposal for the evening. The auguries are good therefore for a brilliant and successful debut of the new organization, the Young Ladies' Club of Menlo Park.

NINE LOTS SELECTED FOR SCHOOL SITE

Citizens Committee Recommends Property at Corner of Whipple Ave. and Duane St., in Wellesley Park

The citizens' committee met Monday night and made their selection of a site for the new school in the Redwood Highlands-Wellesley Park District. Their choice included nine lots at the corner of Whipple avenue and Duane street in Wellesley Park, and the several owners of the different lots are George C. Ross, The Redwood City Realty Company, William Brown and Miss Mamie Green. The price paid for the whole is $8700.

The committee adopted resolutions to be submitted to the board of supervisors next Monday, asking for the opening of a street between Redwood avenue and the Woodside road. The committee at a previous meeting selected the Paulson property on the Woodsite road as a site for the new school in the Five Points district and the proposed street would make a direct thoroughfare for the children going to and from the Redwood avenue district.

The committee recommended to the school trustees that the sum of $4000 be set aside out of the bond issue and kept intact, to be used at a later date to provide a site for the new school in the Eastern addition. Changing conditions in that district make it impossible for the committee to make a selection of a site at the present time.
